Sligo Jazz 2014 festival

THERE ARE ONLY TWO TYPES OF MUSIC!

Sligo Jazz Project's ninth year is upon us. Though jazz has a great history, we are always looking to the future and this is reflected in our 2014 festival line up – much of which could be described as cutting edge, blurring the boundaries between jazz, rock and maybe some other genres too.

Both of our guest headliners this year, The Bad Plus and Christian Scott could be described as perfect examples of "cutting edge": The last time The Bad Plus were in Sligo they performed their own majestic arrangements of pieces by Stravinsky and Aphex Twin. Edison Prize winner Christian Scott, though from the heartland of traditional jazz music, New Orleans, is one of the greatest jazz innovators of our time and continues to punch through the genre's limits, and coining a new genre-descriptive phrase, "Stretch" music, in the process.

Despite the name, Sligo Jazz Project has always had scant regard for "pigeonholing" of music into genres anyway. We're coming from that "jazz" tradition. In terms of education, we broadly use the teaching methods developed in colleges such as Berklee, Boston, to help musicians improve their craft. But even Berklee don't order their students to "go forth and play jazz". All music will evolve naturally and being part of that evolutionary process is very exciting.

As Duke Ellington was famously quoted: "There are only two types of music: The good stuff and the other stuff". We hope you can join us to hear lots of the good stuff this week, as we have several Grammy winning musicians on our stellar summer school faculty too – all of whom perform for your listening pleasure on a great week for music in Sligo.

THE BAD PLUS

8pm Hawk's Well Theatre

Reid Anderson - bass, Ethan Iverson - piano, David King - drums.

The Bad Plus came together at the end of the 20th century and has avoided easy categorization ever since, winning critical hosannas and a legion of fans worldwide with their creativity, unique sound and flair for live performance. Based in New York City, the intensely collaborative trio has constantly searched for rules to break and boundaries to cross, bridging genres and techniques while exploring the infinite possibilities of three exceptional musicians working in perfect sync. The Bad Plus' ninth studio recording (and first since 2012's Made Possible), The Rite of Spring continues the leaderless trio's committed belief in what they've dubbed 'avant-garde populism' — the idea that serious music can be as engaging and accessible as it is forward-thinking and provocative.

"Better than anyone at mixing the sensibilities of post-60's jazz and indie rock...."
The New York Times

"So, if this piano trio wants to play as loud as a rock band...well, let 'em rip....these bad boys have the musicianship to back up their attitude."- The New Yorker

ALAN BROADBENT

8pm Hawk's Well Theatre

€18/15conc./10 u12s Booking: 071-9161518/www.hawkswell.com

Alan Broadbent - piano & special guest Judy Niemack - voice.

SJP is honoured to have two-time Grammy Award winning pianist and orchestrator Alan Broadbent as principal piano tutor on this year's summer school. This is a rare chance to see the master at work in a solo setting. Mr. Broadbent will be joined by his special guest, also a member of the stellar 2014 summer school faculty at SJP, the great American vocalist Judy Niemack.

Auckland, New Zealand born Alan Broadbent has performed with, to name but a few: Diana Krall, Nelson Riddle, Johnny Mandel, Paul McCartney, Charlie Haden and Natalie Cole, on her famous "Unforgettable" album. Alan toured as her pianist and later as her conductor. At this time he wrote an orchestral arrangement for her second video with her dad, Nat, "When I Fall In Love", which won him his first Grammy, and soon after won a second Grammy for an orchestral accompaniment with Charlie Haden's Quartet West.

Broadbent is Diana Krall's conductor for her occasional orchestra concerts and is the conductor on her "Live in Paris" DVD. Recently he has been the arranger on Glenn Frey's cd with strings, "After Hours", and wrote arrangements for Sir Paul McCartney's "Kisses On The Bottom". It has been his lifelong goal, through his orchestral arrangements and jazz improvisations, to discover, in popular music and standard songs, deeper feelings of communication and love.

DRUM & BASS WITH DERI & CO

8pm Hawk's Well Theatre

€18/15conc./10 u12s Booking: 071-9161518/www.hawkswell.com

DERI & CO: Derico Watson - drums and guests. Plus Steve Rodby - bass and guests.

Bassists and drummers will know what we are talking about: They don't get to lead bands very often, but our two special artists tonight certainly deserve a headliner as two of the most respected members of their professions on the planet.

Derico Watson nearly lifted the roof off the Hawk's Well this time last year as drummer with the Mike Stern/Victor Wooten Band. This year he returns to Sligo to share the love – and some great inspiration – as SJP's principal drum tutor. Just watch him go as he is joined by some of our esteemed SJP faculty members here tonight in a jazz and fusion workout.

Steve Rodby - Bringing thirteen Grammys and countless accolades as bassist with the Pat Metheny Group since 1980, and producer of many gems including Esperanza Spalding's Concert Music Society, Steve Rodby tells us (as if we hadn't guessed) he has a penchant for guitar players. Ok we are up to the challenge, here's Sligo's own Mike Nielsen and Belgian maestro Jeanfrancois Prins to whet your appetite, Steve.

FRIDAY JULY 25

CHRISTIAN SCOTT SEXTET

8pm Hawk's Well Theatre

€20/18conc./10 u12s Booking: 071-9161518/www.hawkswell.com

Featuring: Isadora Mendez Scott - vocals.
Christian Scott aTunde Adjuah - trumpet, reverse flugel, sirennette.
Braxton Cook - straight alto, alto.
Lawrence Fields - piano, keyboards. Cliff Hines - guitar.
Kris Funn - bass. Corey Fonville - drums.

Christian Scott, born in 1983 in New Orleans, is a Grammy Award nominated jazz trumpeter, composer and producer. He has been heralded by "JazzTimes" magazine as "the Architect of a new commercially viable fusion" and "Jazz's young style God." The nephew of jazz alto saxophonist Donald Harrison, Scott has released five albums, the latest being double-disc Christian a Tunde Adjuah. The trumpeter is noted for his use of an unvoiced tone, which he calls his "whisper technique."

"I grew up in New Orleans – I've seen a lot of rough stuff. I've seen people get shot and killed right there and seen the life come out of a human being. And when you see stuff like that, you realize that you could blink and miss it and a life could be over. So, at the end of the day you may as well covet the opportunity that you have to get to know yourself. And if you're thinking about that when you're making music, then your music is probably going to be unique because you are."

This concert is being recorded by RTÉ lyric fm and may be broadcast in the future.
