SLIGO JAZZ PROJECT, INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL & FESTIVAL

25-30 JULY 2023

Welcome to Sligo Jazz Project (SJP)'s 2023 festival line-up and this year it is all about community. Throughout the week we will be celebrating Sligo's budding jazz musicians, those that have come to our summer school over the 18 years since we began, and the many alumni of our fabulous Sligo institutions, Sligo Jazz Project and Sligo Academy of Music, now blossoming as professional jazz musicians. Along the way you'll get the chance to see all of our 2023 summer school faculty performing at various venues around Sligo.

We have a fantastic turnout for our summer school as always, and that's providing a core audience to give an atmosphere at the concerts that we would like to bottle and bathe in for the rest of the year. Our summer school participants are here for the one reason: to be nourished, inspired and educated – and of course entertained, in Sligo's fabulous venues, by our festival artists, which this year consists almost entirely of our SJP faculty. They also become the entertainers. Summer school participants of all ages, nationalities and backgrounds can be found performing their hearts out for the general public at our twice-daily jam sessions in Andersons, culminating in the SJP Big Bash on Sunday 30 July, always a fabulous spectacle featuring over 120 performers.

Our 2023 Artist-in-Residence is award winning UK saxophonist Tony Kofi. A prominent figure on the UK scene for more than two decades now, Tony will perform at several SJP 2023 events including his headline concert featuring the music of Cannonball Adderley on Thursday, July 27. Many of you summer school participants will recall Tony's inspirational workshops at our 2022 event, and we will be getting many more of those this July.

For the first time we introduce our inaugural position of Young Artist in Residence in 2023 and we believe this inaugural post to be most fitting: Sligo pianist and composer, Young Irish Jazz Musician of the Year 2022, Nils Kavanagh.

Enjoy!

Eddie Lee
Artistic Director, Sligo Jazz Project

Cathy Jordan (IE) - Voice
Paul Clarvis (UK) - Drums
Liam Noble (UK) - Piano

Out of lockdown reflection time emerged this unique and exhilarating trio where the world of Irish folk meets jazz mixed with Mose Allison blues. National trad vocal treasure Cathy Jordan is joined by first-call Londoners Liam Noble and Paul Clarvis. Their 2022 album Freight Train was described as "quite a ride" by the Guardian's 4-star review.

"...Duke Ellington's Mood Indigo, revealing yet another, darker side to Jordan's remarkable voice... The whole album adds up to a very agreeable 50-odd minutes, but beware. A long-forgotten tune, suddenly heard again, can stick to you like glue. It happened to me with this title track, Freight Train, a hit in the mid-1950s, when I first heard it. Now I can't shake it. ****

Nils Kavanagh (IE) - Piano
Marcus Baber (UK) - Double Bass
Sam Green (UK) - Drums

Sligo Jazz Project introduces an inaugural position of Young Artist in Residence in 2023. Sligo pianist Nils Kavanagh takes up this post, having been presented by Bill Whelan with the inaugural Young Irish Jazz Musician of the Year 2022 award at Limerick Jazz, and was a first-time tutor on SJP's 2022 Summer School. As part of his first national tour we feel it is only fitting that Nils opens our festival programme at the Hawks Well, leading an energetic and explorative group, presenting original compositions and arrangements through the classic piano trio idiom.

Phil Robson Trio

Phil Robson (UK/IE) - Guitar
Meilana Gillard (USA/NI) - Saxophone
Derek Whyte (IE) - Double Bass

Phil Robson is a multi-award-winning guitarist & composer, now based in Co. Roscommon, who has become an important artist on both the UK and New York jazz scenes. He has led bands featuring jazz legends such as David Liebman, Mark Turner, Billy Hart, James Genus & many more as well as working as a sideman with Barbra Streisand, Kenny Wheeler, Charles Earland, Donny McCaslin, Django Bates, The BBC Big Band and a hugely diverse spectrum of internationally renowned musicians. In Europe, he is renowned as the co-leader of the cult UK band 'Partisans' with saxophonist Julian Siegel and for his work with the great singer/songwriter, Christine Tobin. In New York he is best known for his collaboration with the great saxophonist/composer Jed Levy. He's also a 'Whirlwind Recordings' artist with highly acclaimed albums who performs at major venues and festivals around the world. He is joined by the highly acclaimed American born Northern Ireland resident, tenor-saxophonist, vocalist, and composer, Meilana Gillard and Irish bassist Derek Whyte.

Robson performs impeccably throughout, whether he's contributing chordal washes in support, or taking the spotlight for some intricate, fluid solos of his own – AllAboutJazz

Director Martin Moser, with guests including SJP 2023 Artist in Residence, Tony Kofi and Young Artist in Residence, Nils Kavanagh.

+ A New Generation of Jazz Artists

Curated by SJP Young Artist in Residence 2023 Nils Kavanagh

Featuring Nils Kavanagh, Piano, Joseph Leighton, guitar, Fraser Gaine saxophone, Conor Bastible, piano, Micheal Murray, saxophone, Conor Murray, bass, Sam Purcell, drums, Sylvie Noble, voice.

This fabulous gala night is a concert of two halves, showcasing Sligo's new generation of jazz performers along with musicians from outside Sligo who have come to be an intrinsic part of SJP's summer school. We celebrate the fine players who have developed through their early years at both SJP and Sligo Academy of Music. We are first treated to a set by a select number of extraordinary young musicians who have come through SJP's summer school, several of whom are now tutors on our 2023 faculty. The second set features Sligo Academy of Music Jazz Orchestra along with some fabulous surprise guests, including our 2023 Artist in Residence Tony Kofi and several of the orchestra's alumni.

Scott Flanigan (NI) - Organ
Mike Nielsen (IE) - Guitar
Steve Davis (NI) - Drums

This afternoon's session features three SJP stalwarts. Hailing from Belfast in Northern Ireland, Scott Flanigan is one of the foremost keyboard players on the Irish jazz scene. He performs regularly across the United Kingdom, Ireland, France and Germany, and has recently performed with Van Morrison, the Ulster Orchestra, Larry Coryell, Jean Toussaint, Jim Mullen and Linley Hamilton. As a leader, Scott successfully tours his own contemporary piano trio, as well as a hard-swinging organ quartet. He also runs the successful Scott's Jazz Club in East Belfast, a weekly jazz club bringing the best in Irish jazz to local audiences. He's joined by two fellow Doctors of Music: Sligo's greatest jazz export, Mike Nielsen on guitar and Stephen Davis on drums.

A million thanks to everyone who helps put this great event together, especially

SJP board: Therese O'Loughlin, Norman Pugh, John Sharkey, Dr. Mike Nielsen

Nothing would happen without our amazing festival and summer school production crew:

Production Manager: Stephanie Pawula, assisted by Ruari Hanley, John Sharkey, Marcus Roberts, plus Ita Callagy, Kris Manulak, Dominika Manulak on video production and our fabulous photographer Lieve Boussaw. Ray Duffy, Vinnie Higgins, Ray McAndrew, Ruari Hanley: Sound men!

Everyone who volunteers and helps in different ways each year especially Mimi Lee, Anna Houston, Colm & Nick O'Sullivan, Sinead Kelly, Mhairi & the Gaine family, Roisin from Music Generation Sligo and Damian Evans from Music Generation Mayo, Dave Flynn, Simon Hunt, Steve Kohlmann, Sean O'Reilly, Ken McDonald, Kieran Quinn. John the Map for his wonderful map which he customises each year for us..

Aisling, Declan and all at ATU Sligo, Ireland's newest University, who take such good care of us each year. Des Faul and all the ATU O'Hehir's staff. Marie O'Byrne, Kieran Griffiths, Maeve, Nick, John, Shane and all the wonderful staff at the Hawk's Well Theatre who put so much energy and experience into making our event run smoothly every year.

Our incredible webmaster Mike Slowey for the fab Poster/Programme Cover design.

Kevin from Scene Print and Design.

Eddie McFarlane Jim Meehan (RIP) and Felip Carbonell for being the driving forces behind the formation of SJP.

All the amazing musicians who come to our summer school every year and create the unique atmosphere that is Sligo Jazz Project!

All of our fantastic volunteers and anyone else who helped us along the way!
